Amendment of Mental Health Act, 1939-1974

The Mental Health Act, 1939-1974, is amended -
(a) by striking out Parts I, II, IV, VI, VII, VIII, and IX thereof;
(b) by striking out the heading to Part III thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following heading: -

PART III
Criminal Mental Defectives
(c) by striking out Division I of Part III and inserting in lieu thereof the following Division:

Division I - Preliminary

Interpretation. 42. In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears -

"the Director" means the person holding, or acting in, the office of Director of Mental Health Services under the Mental Health Act, 1976-1977:

"hospital for criminal mental defectives" means a place declared by proclamation to be a hospital for criminal mental defectives under this Act:

"mentally defective person" means -

(a) a person who is mentally ill, that is to say, a person who, owing to his mental condition, requires oversight, care or control for his own good or in the public interest and who, owing to disorder of the mind or mental infirmity arising from age or the decay of his faculties, is incapable of managing himself or his affairs; or

(b) an intellectually retarded person;

and the expressions "mental defect", "mental defective" and "mentally defective" shall be construed accordingly:

"receiving house" means any place that the Director declares, by instrument in writing, to be a receiving house for the purposes of this Part.

43. (1) The Governor may, from time to time, by proclamation, declare any hospital or any part thereof, or any part of any prison, or any other place which he deems suitable for the purpose, to be a hospital for criminal mental defectives.

(2) The Governor may, by proclamation, declare that any hospital for criminal mental defectives shall cease to be a hospital for criminal mental defectives.

44. (1) The Governor may for each hospital for criminal mental defectives appoint a superintendent and, if he deems it necessary, a deputy superintendent.

(2) No person shall be so appointed unless he is a medical practitioner.

45. (1) Except as provided by regulations made pursuant to this Act, where an institution is a part of a prison that has been declared to be a hospital for criminal mental defectives under section 43 of this Act -
(a) the superintendent of the institution appointed under section 44 of this Act shall —
(i) be responsible for, and have control of and over, the medical care, treatment and welfare of all patients of that institution; and
(ii) perform such duties of a superintendent imposed by this Act as relate or are incidental to such care, treatment and welfare;
and
(b) the officer in charge of the prison shall —
(i) subject to the directions of the Comptroller of Prisons, have the control, management and administration of the institution in all matters connected with its internal routine and discipline;
(ii) be responsible for the custody and security of the patients therein; and
(iii) be responsible for the carrying out of the other duties by this Act imposed upon the superintendent of the institution and for the due observance of the provisions of this Act in reference to all matters occurring within the institution other than those referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(2) Regulations made under this Act may, in relation to any institution that is a part of a prison declared to be a hospital for criminal mental defectives under section 43 of this Act —
(a) impose or confer on or assign to the officer in charge of the prison any of the duties, responsibilities, powers or functions of the superintendent of an institution under this Act;
(b) declare that any provision of this Act shall not apply.

(3) Any regulation so made shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in the Prisons Act, 1936-1976.
