When looking for sound recordings in Library Search it is useful to use keywords such as composer, song/albunm title, performer, conductor, instrument, work number or genre. For example, if you are looking for a recording of Rhapsody in Blue by George Gershwin, conducted by Leonard Bernstein, you could use: Rhapsody Gershwin Bernstein.

1. Access Library Search from the library homepage.

2. Using Library Search, type in the keywords for the piece you are looking for and click on the search button.

3. Using the menu on the right hand side, scroll down to Resource Type and select Audio Visual.
4. You can refine results further by selecting online or in the library

Contact Us
For further support or questions, please contact the University Library on +61 8 8313 5759 or email library@adelaide.edu.au