Introduction

If you are searching for a topic in Library Search you can use the built-in tools to narrow down your search in a number of different ways.

Procedure

1. Type your keywords in the Library Search box. Press Enter or click the search icon.

```
free speech
```

2. Refine your results list by using the options in the right-hand side bar.
3. Select from one or more of the following options:
   a. Use the Sort by option to view your results by: Relevance, Author, Title, Date-newest, Date-oldest

   !Sort by Options

   b. Under Availability, limit your results to Peer-reviewed Journals

   !Availability Options

   c. Restrict your results to a particular material type (e.g. articles, books, book chapters) by using Resource Type

   !Resource Type Options
d. Refine your results to a particular publication date range using the date picker

![Date Picker]

- From 2000
- To 2018
- Refine

e. Refine your results by Subject (you can select multiple terms at once)

![Subject Filters]

- Education (92,934)
- Political Science (38,818)
- Introduction (27,717)
- Constitutional Law (25,890)
- Governments (25,723)

Note: Click the Show More link to see more subject terms

4. Click APPLY FILTERS to display your refined search results.

---

Contact Us

For further support or questions, please contact the Library on +61 8 8313 5759 or library@adelaide.edu.au