Introduction
Accessing BMJ Learning.

Procedure
Individual registration is required (click on the Log In button to both register and log in). If you already have an account for BMJ Best Practice or BMJ OnExamination then you will also be able to use it for BMJ Learning.

Sign in using your BMJ individual password. Otherwise use the Register now option if you don’t have one.
This screen will re-appear although you are already logged in. At this stage just type in your search or scroll down this page to select a specialty.

Then you will see your search results and the Welcome acknowledgement.
